

Aggarwal College organises Agrasen Jayanti Celebrations

Chief Guest Dr. S.S. Bansal with Mr. Devender Gupta, Chairman & Dr. Krishan Kant Gupta, Principal Aggarwal College presenting trophy to winner student

Ballabgarh : 2nd Annual Inter University Maharaja Agrasen Jayanti Celebrations 'Navrang : A Cultural Fest' was organised in Aggarwal College Ballabgarh on 8th & 9th October, 2018. 21 Colleges and 5 Universities such as Lingaya's, YMCA, Shiv College Tigaon, SD College Palwal, Saraswati Mahila Mahavidyalaya etc. participated in various Cultural and Folk activities, showcased their talent and mesmerised the audience. On 8th October, 2018 the fest was inaugurated by Mr. Vijay Jindal (Managing Director, SPL Industries), Mr. Mool Chand Sharma (MLA, Ballabgarh), Sh. Devender Kumar Gupta (President, College Governing Body), Dr. Vasudeo Gupta (Vice President) and other eminent members of the Management. The programme was divided into 3 stages. On the first stage, there were events of Folk Song, Group Song, Folk Dance Solo (Male & Female), on the 2nd stage was Poetic Recitation and Declamation on current contemporary issues of social concern, On the 3rd stage was Rangoli Competition. On the 2nd Day i.e. 9th October 2018, the fest started with Geet/ Bhajan/ Gazal. After that Mimicry, Group Dance (General & Haryanvi), on the Spot Painting and Mime were organised.

In the Valedictory Ceremony Dr. S.S. Bansal, Cardiologist and founder Metro Hospital, Faridabad was the Chief Guest, Dr. M. K. Arora, Principal, GGDGD College, Palwal was the Guest of Honour, Mr. Devender Kumar Gupta was the Chairperson Dr. S.S. Bansal Congratulated all the winners and motivated them to take maximum benefits from their almatemter. He advised them to stay away from junk food as it badly affects the health. He also appreciated the Fest and congratulated the college for successfully organising it. Mr. Devender Gupta exhorted the students to follow the teaching of Maharaja Agrasen who was a true socialist. Principal Dr. Krishan Kant Gupta said that the aim of organising such fest is to connect the youth with Indian Culture & Heritage. There were cash prizes for all the winners. In Group Items, 1st Prize was of Rs. 5100/-, 2nd prize was of Rs. 3100/- and third prize of Rs. 1100/-. In Solo Items, winners of 1st Position got Rs. 2100/-, 2nd prize winner got Rs. 1100/- and third prize winner got Rs. 500/-. Best performing Institution Award went to Aggarwal College Ballabgarh and it got Rs. 21000/- in cash. Runner up Institution GGDSDG College, Palwal got Rs. 11000/- . Judgement was done by eminent and experts in their particular areas such as Dr. T.D. Dinkar, Mr. Nawab Kesar, Mr. Chaman Prakash, Mr. R.V. Sharma, Ms. Asha Ahlawat, Mr. Dipender, Mr. Chandrakant and Mr. Deepak. The whole fest was organised under the able guidance and direction of Principal Dr. Krishan Kant Gupta. Dr. Poonam Anand was the Convenor and Dr. K.L. Kaushik was the Co-convenor. The stage was conducted by Mrs. Kiran Anand, Dr. Sarika Kanjlia, Dr. Renu Maheshwari and Dr. Banke Bihari.